

ANNUAL REPORT OF ASSISI CONVENT SCHOOL – NOIDA

(from December 2019 to November 2022)

Assisi Convent School ,Noida celebrated its 31st Annual day on 19th November 2022. An Annual Day conducted after two years of forced lockdown due to the pandemic which had a mixed impact on several fields globally. The Chief Guest for the day Mr. Harish Yadav, PF Commissioner-II, Noida graciously accepted our invitation for the occasion.

Though the restrictions were quite severe studies never took the back bench. Classes commenced for the academic session of 2020-2021 in the online mode in the month of April. No compromise was made on the activities and celebrations as all were conducted online. Glitches were there as it was a new trend .The teachers as well as the students were equally passionate about it and they contributed in the utmost sincerity to bring out the best to make it into a virtual reality. Teachers made the class more interactive and interesting while the students contributed diligently from their part .It was a totally different form of learning for both. All the exams were conducted online.

The school started functioning in a gradual process for classes IX –XII having offline sessions in the beginning of 2021.As per the protocol only a limited number of students were allowed in the classes. Masks and sanitisers were mandatory. All the exams were conducted offline from 2021. Due to the surge of the number of covid cases orders were there to shutdown schools and the mode of teaching was shifted to online again. The Class X and XII board exams were called off and the students were assessed on the basis of their yearly performance. By November the offline classes started . CBSE decided to conduct the board exams a Term I in November,2021 and Term 2 in the end of April 2022 which got over by June 22.

ADMINISTRATION

The academic session 2022 started on a positive note .The students were really keen to attend the offline classes and the working of the school was as scheduled. K.G Session started with the Vidya Arambh a divine beginning where the child is made to write on the rice in presence of their parent and teacher. The academic session commences with an invocation to the GOD ALMIGHTY seeking intercession for a successful and smooth procedure for all the endeavors to be carried out throughout the year.

A formal farewell was accorded for the favours rendered by them in our institution. Rev. Sr. Daliya the new Vice Principal resumed duty on July after an ardent welcome by the staff and students.

FAREWELL DEAR TEACHERS

We had our teachers who served our institution for more than 25 years retiring in the month of March2022-Sajida Madam our Science teacher , Tomer Sir our PT instructor and Saramma Madam our librarian. Their contributions to our school were remarkable and it is considered the duty of their juniors to follow their footprints.

A PRAYER OF GRATITUDE

We thank God Almighty for the abundant blessings bestowed on the Assisi Family . You guided us as we tread through various obligations, helped us to overcome the barriers we faced strongly and made us resilient day by day. We realised that You were behind us,before us and beside us protecting us which brought us all closer to you. We were blessed us with hearts and minds filled with your loving kindness which helped us to serve you more .
